Nineteenth Sunday of the Year

(Year A/Weekdays 1)

Sunday Liturgy: Order of Mass: 479

Hymns:

Refer Hymn Boards for hymn numbers

Summary of Readings:

1 Kings 19:9. 11-13 Elijah is discouraged and despondent; he goes to the mountain where God appeared to Moses. There he has a mystical experience, which enables him to face his future mission.

Romans 9:1-5 Paul is pained by his fellow Jews' rejection of the Gospel. He feels the problem so much that he states he would be willing to be rejected himself if that would bring about their conversion.

Matthew 14:22-33 Matthew gives hope to his community by showing that Jesus does not abandon his followers. When they are overtaken by fear, when their faith falters, Jesus stretches out his hand to save.

St Anne's (Kaimes Road) 'Big Sing', Friday 22 September at 7.30 pm fund-raising for their Development Project. If you would like to suggest a hymn, please e-mail the title to office@stannescorstorphine.org.uk by Monday 11 September – or mail to St Anne's Parish Church. Your votes will decide which hymns are sung. All welcome to come along and join in with refreshments afterwards. Retiring collection in aid of the St Anne's Development Fund.

St Thomas' Church is holding a fundraising evening of praise Sunday 10 September at 7pm. See poster in porch for details.

The new school term starts on Wednesday 16 August.

*"The smile of a child as they start for school,
is a bit restrained, as a general rule.
The teacher's smile, in the same way tends,
to droop a bit as the holiday ends.
But the smile much wider than all the others,
as the schools go back, is Mother's."*
