News from St John's

International Night: One of Fr Martin's ideas for a social gathering was an International Night where we would celebrate the diversity of the parish. You are invited to St John's International night on the 27th January at 7.15pm (after mass). There are no tickets but it would be helpful if you could indicate your attendance on the sheets at the back of the church for catering and planning purposes. A taste of haggis, neeps and tatties will be served but please feel free to, if you can, bring food we can share with each other that represents your heritage. There will be drink and refreshments available with a box for donations that we will gather and send to a cause close to Fr Martin, in remembrance of him. There will also be some music and entertainment but we are looking for others to add to this so feel free to get up and show your talents. Any questions or help that you can provide then please contact a member of the PPC.

Accommodation Required: A 27-year old Polish girl (a parishioner of St John's), working full time at the Gyle is looking for new accommodation March/beg of April. If you can help, please email Beata Marcjan bhmarcjan@gmail.com.

This year's Film is LION – a wonderful heartwarming story of a five-year-old Indian boy who gets lost on the streets of Calcutta, thousands of kilometres from home. Tea Team for Next Sunday: Team 3

Foreign Coins: Over the last few years you have kindly donated your left over foreign coins to Lindsay Wilson who has in turn has magically sold them on with the proceeds going to a charity at the discretion of the Parish Priest; a sum of c.£700 to date. The latest collection of coins has converted to £100 which Fr Jeremy has asked to be added to the Crib donations for the Archdiocesan Care Fund. Keep your foreign coins coming, Lindsay is happy to relieve you of them and the money goes to a good cause.
